

Indiana's telephone privacy law has made a huge difference to me. I recieved about 5-6 calls a day. Now I do not get any. It is wonderful! This law should not be messed with. Let the states decide how to take care of the unwanted telemarketers.